Dear [REDACTED]

The news from Mr. Rodriguez of your withdrawing from the EPM Program is indeed unwelcome, but I have no doubt that you gave it a great deal of thought. After our last telephone conversation and the conversation that I gather you had with Professor Conway, I thought we would be seeing you here this week, the idea being that a first hand discussion between the three of us, and others that might be involved, would enable you to get a good idea of just what might be developed in the way of a degree program.

In any event, things will doubtless work out for the best in the long run. It was a pleasure to meet you [REDACTED] last month, and I want to take this opportunity to extend my best wishes to you both.

STATINTL

Cordially,

Edward S. Flash, Jr.
Associate Professor of Public Administration
